

Your October 2024 Community Newsletter

CONGRATULATIONS!

17 & under Netball Premiership winners!

Congratulations to the team and their coaches, Briana and Laura, for the achievement. The team went undefeated all season—an amazing achievement!. We look forward to hearing all of the details in next month’s newsletter.

WHAT’S BEHIND YOUR LOCAL NEWSLETTER?

Walla Walla Hello Hello aims to provide a monthly publication which includes a range of articles relating to matters of general interest to those in the Walla Walla community.

How did it all start?

During the 1990’s, Janet Paech and Fay Kohlhagen distributed a local newsletter with the support of the Walla Walla Lion’s Club. The Walla Walla Community Newsletter was started around 2002 by the Walla Walla Lutheran Church as a service to the community. They produced and printed the newsletter until such time as the responsibility was shifted to the Walla Walla Community Development Committee in 2014. For the first time a team was formed to share the responsibility and work together.

Who have been the editors?

The names of newsletter editors since its inception have been John Wittwer, Trevor Schroeter, Christine Biar, Katie Nadebaum, Francoise McPherson, Ben & Raquel Kotzur and Steph Odewahn.

Who is in the current newsletter team?

At present the team consists of Jenny Jacob, Herb Simpfindorfer, Julie Barber, Trish Fulford, Raquel Kotzur, Phil Carroll and Julia Muller. The team gathers information and ideas as the editing load gets shared amongst two members.

How does the process work?

After the deadline, on the 15th of each month, the editor compiles all the information from what has been received on the newsletter email together with the information that has been collected by the rest of the newsletter team. The editor works on the computer with the Microsoft Publisher program to edit the newsletter document and fit all the information in. Once the newsletter is finished, it gets sent to the rest of the team so they can proof read it. The team gives feedback, such as spelling mistakes and other suggestions for changes. The editor makes the changes and the final version of the newsletter is then ready for printing. The newsletter is then printed over the weekend in the Kotzur office, 435 copies are printed, taking approximately 3 hours to complete. Jenny Jacob then collects all the copies on Monday morning. Between 5-8 ladies meet at Jenny’s house each month to fold each one of the copies. These are then taken to the post office so they can be distributed with the mail run on the first Wednesday of the month.

If you would like to be part of the newsletter team we are currently looking for editors to join us and share the editing role. If you would like to know more, please email wallenewsletter@gmail.com.

INTERAGENCY TRAINING

On Saturday the 7th of September, our members had the opportunity to travel into Albury to team up with the crew from Albury & Border Rescue Squad – VRA Rescue NSW

The members were able to simulate a trapped person as a result of a motor vehicle accident,

This gave our members a hands-on experience on how to navigate and safely extract an injured person.

Our members had a great day, coming home with some very valuable knowledge and experience to support our community.

COMMUNITY SUPPORT

The Walla Walla community has been a great supporter of our brigade over the years.

This year we are working towards several projects including upgrades and enhancements to our facility.

If you would like to support our brigade in the way of a donation, this can be done at any time at the WAW in person or via electronic funds transfer. Account details below:

St. Mary's Catholic Church's Centenary

St. Mary's Catholic Church will be holding a Mass attended by the Bishop to commemorate its centenary on Sunday 6th October at 3.00pm.

There will be tea and a light supper provided afterwards. All welcome.

St. Mary's Church History

The first recorded Catholic mass at Walla Walla was on June 28th, 1891, this was held in the nearby camp of the men building the Culcairn to Corowa railway.

April 1912. At a meeting of the Roman Catholic Church, held at Rices' Hotel Hall, the trustees for the Walla Walla Catholic Church were elected. Mr. James Hogan, a local stock agent, was elected secretary, he reported the position of the church was very sound, Mr. Hogan was also elected as the representative for the catholic church as a trustee of the Walla cemetery, catholic section.

December 1912. Roman Catholic Church purchased and paid off a block of land, on Market Street, and arrangements were being made to fence the new block. There were many fundraising events in previous months to help raise these funds.

October 1921. The Roman Catholic Church was dedicated on Market St. The right Rev. Dr. Dwyer; Bishop of Wagga officiated. Lunch organised by the ladies followed at the Literary Institute. The new church was said to be a fine addition to the town. Before then, Catholics met at the hotel Hall, when this was demolished in 1920, they then worshipped in the Baptist Church, also on Market St.

THE RAND-WALBUNDRIE-WALLA GIANTS NETBALL NEWS by Shelley Schilg

With the finals having begun, the Giants Netball had all 4 seniors teams making Finals, and the under 17's!!

Elimination Final saw our A and B Grade the first to play Finals, and even though both teams played very well, it just wasn't enough to get them through to the next round of finals.

A Grade going down to Howlong 42 to 28.

B Grade going down to Holbrook 42 to 24.

C and C Res were next to play Elimination Finals, and both teams were successful in getting into the next round of finals!!

C Grade defeating Osborne 47 to 42. Best On Court going to Giants player Caitlin Kotzur.

C Res were up next, defeating Holbrook 31 to 26. Best on court going to Giants Player Caitlan Leskie

Semi Final weekend saw the under 17's girls face Holbrook, with the winner advancing straight into the Grand Final. The girls came out and played great Netball defeating Holbrook 56 to 40. Best On Court went to Giants Player Priya Kohlhagen.

Sunday's Semi Final at Howlong, our C Grade and C Res were playing. Unfortunately both grades were eliminated from advancing to the Prelim Final.

C Grade going down to Henty 27 to 32.

C Res going down to Jindera 36 to 14.

The Giants 17's girls will now play Holbrook in the grand final, after they defeated Brock Burrum Saints in the Preliminary Final!!

On the 11th of September the Hume League Vote Count was held at the Commercial Club. It was so good to see so many of our Giant Netballers in the top10, and even better that we had two of our girls take out Best and Fairest in the league: Priya Kohlhagen in the under 17's and Sarah Mathews in C Grade.

THE RAND-WALBUNDRIE- WALLA GIANTS FOOTBALL NEWS

by Brett Kohlhagen

Rand-Walbundrie-Walla's season came to a close in the first week of the finals.

The seniors proved no match for CDHBU who went on to make the preliminary final.

Injuries hurt the team with many players playing under clouds.

Joel Merkel was solid for the Giants in defence before moving up the ground.

Brothers Nick and Tom Kohlhagen also battled the match out, but probably had more wrestles than touches of the football.

The under-17s bowed out of the finals when they lost to Howlong.

The young Giants were led well by Ed Kreuzberger.

The club will hold its best and fairest count in Albury later this month.

Michael Oates, Matt Grantham and Bernie Lieschke will start favourites in the seniors. Ben Hoffmann, Jordy Rhodes and Alain Mutela should lead the way in the reserves.

WALLA NORTH WALLA TENNIS CLUB

Red Cross Report

On Monday, 19th August, three of our members attended the Walla Walla Public School to celebrate 34 years of Trauma Teddies. The children were dressed in red T-Shirts representing the Red Cross colour. Our Zone Rep., Valmae, gave an informative talk on how Trauma Teddies started. Each child received a Teddy, which I'm sure was very much appreciated. Our next meeting is on 23rd October at 2pm at Baptist Church Hall.

LOCAL HORROR FILM HAS INTERNATIONAL SUCCESS

A local independent horror movie, filmed in Walla Walla on a micro budget (with various pick-up shots done in Albury and Howlong), MANHATTAN ZODIAC '77 has proven to be an international success after being 'officially selected' by various film festivals across the globe, from Johannesburg, South Africa to Manchester, England, all the way to the United States, where the film was given a 'Honorable Mention' in Albuquerque, New Mexico, nominated for 'Best Horror Film' in New Orleans, Louisiana and awarded 'Winner of Best Direction' in Los Angeles, California. Film critics worldwide have also been kind, with Severed Cinema (Sweden) calling the film 'A creative low budget production which uses high style to surpass its shortcomings' while Deaf Sparrow (U.S.A) calls the film 'A Modern Giallo-Slasher Trashterpiece'. The film tells the sordid story of a maniac stalking the sleazy streets in and around Times Square, New York circa 1977 and centres on two young women sharing a run-down hotel room, who are about to become the killers' next targets. Distributed internationally by Australian distributor BOUNTY FILMS, the film is now available on DVD from Amazon.com, and can be found on PRIME VIDEO streaming.

Teddy Bear Picnic and Picture Books at Walla Walla Childcare

We kicked off our Book Week festivities with a visit to Walla Walla Childcare, where our students read picture books to the young children during a delightful Teddy Bear Picnic. The little ones, clutching their favourite stuffed animals, were captivated by the stories, and our students took great pride in sharing their love for reading with the next generation.

Tree Planting – On Monday 16th of September Walla Walla Public School planted some new trees and shrubs down at the Walla Walla Sportsground as part of our recognition of National Tree Day 2024. Students will be able to monitor the growth of their trees over the years. Thank you to Hume Landcare for supplying tree guards, Sandy Creek Trees for donating the plants, Stacey Bell for giving her time and expertise, Walla Walla Sportsground Committee for digging the trenches, and John Mullavey for his assistance with this project.

Albury Library Museum Visits – Whilst students were in Albury for swimming lessons we took time to visit the Albury Library Museum and attended a session with Author Danny Katz as part of the Write Around the Murray Festival.

Don't forget to check out the school Facebook page for our weekly videos of what is happening in and around our school. The students are gaining confidence both behind and in front of the camera.
